SB Civil Writ Petition No. 6430/1999

Phool Singh Yadav Vs State of Rajasthan & ors

31.8.2007

Hon'ble Mr Justice Ashok Parihar

Mr Vigyan Shah – for petitioner

Mr JK Agrawal, Addl GA – for respondents

BY THE COURT:

Petitioner was considered for promotion to the post of Niab Tehsildar for the year 1992-93. Since two departmental enquiries were pending against the petitioner, the result was kept in a sealed cover. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that subsequently both the enquiries also concluded. In one matter, the petitioner was exonerated, however, in the other, only a warning had been issued.

After conclusion of the departmental enquiries the matter had already been referred to the review DPC for a fresh recommendation on the basis of sealed cover already kept. Learned counsel for the parties have no instructions as to whether any further decision has been taken on the basis of review DPC. Be that as it may, in view of the admitted facts as stated above, the respondents are now directed to hold the review DPC for consideration for promotion to the post of Niab Tehsildar for the year 1992-93 and, if recommended, necessary consequential orders be passed within sixty days from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. With the above directions, the writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
